

SEL Bulletin – Eolas Medical Platform

The SEL Primary Care Antimicrobial Prescribing Guidelines is migrating from the MicroGuide® to a new platform called Eolas (pronounced oh-luss). This will be launched in South East London on Wednesday 14th August 2024.

The guidelines on Eolas Medical can be accessed via an app on phones and tablets (iOS and Android), as well as through a PC web browser. As well as hosting the SEL Primary Care Antimicrobial Prescribing Guidelines the Eolas Medical® platform offers a range of functionalities not previously available on Microguide®, including a knowledge base repository to other medical resources and guidelines such as BNF, BNFC, NICE and other national guidelines.
